Lifestyle: 16 April 2002, Tuesday.

“Hristo Smirnenski – new reading” is the title of the first Bulgarian literary multimedia edition. The book is part of the series “Literary heritage ”of publishing house “Pero – Classics” publishing house has two offers to their readers – Selected works of the author plus a CD-ROM with a biography, dictionary, tests, photo archives and recitals of Smirnenski’s works. The second package includes works of the author and analyses. According to the Zhivko Ivanov, who compiled the series of critical essays, the new technologies were challenged to ease the way of the books to the readers at a time when they ask whether printed books are not facing a decline. The project focuses on a new reading of Smirnenski’s works, which has the advantage of not being straight -jacketed by any political ideology, Svetlozar Zhekov, Direcot of the publishing house said.
